

THE END OF AFFORDABLE RURAL HOUSING DEVELOPMENT?

Or is there action we can take?

Are you a Chair, Board member or Chief Executive of an organisation promoting rural affordable housing?

The Rt Rev Graham James, Bishop of Norwich and Rt Rev James Langstaff, Bishop of Rochester will chair an important discussion on how we can jointly provide more new affordable homes in rural communities.

Can more be achieved by working together?

How do we protect and promote:

- The successful community led approach to rural development model?
- Working side by side with parish councils and local communities?
- Reducing fuel costs by custom designing new energy efficient homes for villages?
- The provision of high quality management and maintenance services?

Is there a model that retains organisations' independence, builds individual balance sheets and importantly delivers more new affordable homes?

Where?

Church House, Westminster

When?

Thursday 20 November 2014
11 am to 3pm.

Speakers include:

The Bishop of Norwich and The Bishop of Rochester, Colin Molton, Executive Director, Homes and Communities Agency, Anthony de Ritter, Chief Executive, National Almshouse Association, Mark Davies, Devonshires BAS.

Aimed primarily at organisations providing or maintaining rural affordable housing in England, this seminar is free of charge.

Reasonable travel costs will be met, where organisations or individuals are unable to meet their costs directly.
